m Burke Speaks to Distributive Education Class

Burke, introduced by ... spoke to the Dis... Class at A. H. ... morning.

... opening remarks pro... customer: Teachers are ... each you and by all ... them. Those of us ... don't profess to be ex... things we can make you ... the lines you want to ...

"I was speaking to the ... men an Employer Con... Promoting an Em... of the points brought ... employee should do if ... to be promoted were: ... be the best job; know ... performing; take ad... opportunities to learn ... them; keep skills high; ... best on in the world; ... the employer expects; ... harmful jobs; don't ... a second miler; don't ... to criticize manage... respect authority.

"You in your school ca... that teachers ... you will find the same ... Mr. Burke said. "But ... find out later that that ... he has some talent or ... the teacher or the boss ... admired." Mr. Burke gave them this quote: "If we do only what we get paid for we'll never be paid for more than we do. Some employees contribute to the employer, thus he receives compensation and other employees may think him to be a 'pest.'"

"In this country we operate on the profit system," Mr. Burke said to the class, "therefore we've got to give the employer a little more than we get in dollars and cents if we want to continue to have good working conditions, good working equipment, and fringe benefits. The only thing you keep is what you give."

Mr. Burke told the students that they have powers that they don't know they possess. He cited as example that a baby learns early in life to work older people to get his way. Some things over which power can be shown are to know what you want to do, know what your employer wants, know what the customer wants, and exercise adaptability.

Mr. Burke told the class that they should try to fit into the organization and be happy with their work. "Work can either be a drudgery or daily joy," he said, and he cited several examples of individuals whose jobs were a joy.

A very interestine question and answer period followed Mr. Burke's talk.

Stonewall

Stonewall, Dec. 2.- We are so glad to know that no one around us was hurt hunting over the holidays. Everyone had a nice Thanksgiving Day.

The new Nomad—the last word in station wagon style and distinction . . . 4-door 6-passenger.

CHEVROLET SETS A NEW STYLE IN STATION WAGONS!

Two new Brookwoods—4-door 6-passenger and 4-door 9-passenger models. Luxuriously appointed.

Meet the year's smartest station wagon set! Chevrolet brings you five new wagons for '58—all long, low and loaded with news.

They're more than nine inches longer, dramatically lower. They set a new style with boldly sculptured lines. And these new Chevrolets are the most practical wagons that ever took to the road. The liftgate is hinged into the roof and raises completely out of the way for easier loading. There's a new easy-opening tailgate, too, and room for longer loads.

No station wagon built ever carried loads with more ease or passengers with more comfort! Chevrolet's new standard Full Coil suspension cradles you on deep coil springs at every wheel. And you can have a real air ride as an extra-cost option.

Stop by your Chevrolet dealer's and look over the smartest, smoothest going station wagons of them all.
